Re: Sejasm Industries, Inc. v A+Mold et al.
Supreme Court Docket No. 156341
Court of Appeals Docket No. 336205
Macomb County Circuit Court Case No. 2014-004273-CB

Dear Mr. Royster:

As you know, I represent Appellant-Defendant Quality Cavity, Inc. in the above-referenced case. I am writing in regard to the Court's January 26, 2018 Order which directs the Clerk to schedule oral argument on Appellant's-Defendant's Application for Leave to Appeal and which directs Appellant-Defendant to file a supplemental brief. Based on our conversation on February 26, 2018, it is my understanding that a supplemental brief and appendix are not necessary in light of the fact that Appellant-Defendant has nothing to add to the argument set forth in its Application and in light of the fact that Appellant-Defendant does not have any supplemental exhibits. Accordingly, please accept this letter as confirmation that Appellant-Defendant does not intend to file a supplemental brief or an appendix.

If my understanding of our conversation is incorrect in any way, or if anything further is required to preserve oral argument on behalf of Appellant-Defendant, please let me know as soon as possible.

Very truly yours,

Daniel J. Broxup
